October 3rd, 1913

Mr. R. D. Thompson,
Box 218,
Princeton University.

My dear Sir:

I have asked Professor W. B. Mustard of Johns Hopkins University, a graduate of the University of Toronto, to represent us at the forthcoming dedication of the Graduate College of Princeton University for which you have been good enough to send an invitation. I will ask Professor Mustard to communicate directly with you.

I see in your announcement that a lecture is to be given by Professor E. Boutroux. I am anxious to have the enclosed letter reach Professor Boutroux as soon as possible. Am I asking too much of you to be kind enough to readdress it and forward it? Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
